NUVO

In its 22nd year of publishing, NUVO magazine is Canada's authority on all things exceptional—a combination of style and purpose, we feature original stories and photography on people, places, and possessions. We share our readers' sensibilities in design, food and wine, fashion, art, travel, jewellery, architecture, horology, and automotive.

NUVO Autumn 2020 features the cover story of a photographic essay of fall fashions set in the changing landscape of Iona Beach. Other stories include Ian Williams, Canadian poet, author, and Giller prize winner for his debut novel Reproduction; Indigenous director and playwright Marie Clements; Fisun Ercan, chef and owner of Su restaurant in Montreal; Catriona Jeffries, gallery owner in Vancouver; original poems and illustrations on the collective experience of these times; and more stories on beauty, design, travel, wine, and everything in between.
